

PROFILE

→ What we have to offer

In the world's largest economics library you will find more than 4 million publications and 27,300 subscribed journals.

Our team on the information desk offers individual advice.

Work without distraction

At the ZBW you will find a quiet workplace with a view of the Firth of Kiel. You can access the major online databases and electronic journals. In the reading rooms you can plug in your laptop.

Are you planning to spend some time at the ZBW for writing a paper? We suggest you rent one of our book carts. Contact the information desk on the first floor for details.

Meetings and discussions

Our group study area on the third floor provides space where you and your work group can have lively discussions.
